

Reconstruction's Legacy

The History and Contemporary Significance of the 14th Amendment

April 19 – 20, 2018

In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the 14th Amendment, this two-day symposium will bring leading legal scholars and historians together to discuss the Amendment's relevance in today's world.

Presented by Historic Columbia and the History Center at USC

Thursday, April 19

Keynote Address by Randall Kennedy, Ph.D.

Chappelle Auditorium at Allen University | 6–7 p.m. |

FREE

Join us for a keynote address by Randall Kennedy on the history of the 14th Amendment. Dr. Kennedy, the Michael R. Klein Professor at Harvard Law School, is a prominent legal scholar, who clerked for Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall. Dr. Kennedy's father and uncle, residents of the Waverly Neighborhood, were often in the audience when Marshall spoke at Chappelle, making this a fitting homecoming for our keynote speaker.

Friday, April 20

Panel discussions & lunch program "Reflections of the 150th anniversary of the birth of W.E.B. DuBois" by David Levering Lewis, Ph.D.

South Carolina State Museum | 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

$40 per person
