

Group Walking Tours

Explore Columbia's Stories —
One Step at a Time

Why Choose Historic Columbia's Walking Tours?

Our walking tours immerse visitors in the vibrant layers of Columbia's past—from Main Street's architectural evolution to neighborhood heritage and social movements that redefined our city. Each tour offers a fresh perspective on the people and places that shaped the capital city.

Available Tour Routes

MAIN STREET DISTRICT

Explore Columbia's historic commercial corridor and uncover stories of growth, architecture, and the people who shaped downtown's dynamic past and present.

BULL STREET DISTRICT

Trace the transformation of Columbia's former state hospital grounds into a thriving mixed-use district while learning about its layered history and architectural legacy.

HAMPTON-PRESTON MANSION GARDENS

Stroll through one of Columbia's oldest urban gardens and discover how landscapes reflected social status, labor, and evolving horticultural trends.

Group Tour Information

PRICING AND AVAILABILITY

$15 per person/per tour. Group tours must be booked at least two weeks in advance.

Ready to Book?

Scan the QR code or visit the webpage to submit your group's details. If you have questions, please reach out to our Group Tour Coordinator, Adam Miller.

historiccolumbia.org/group-tours

